individuals. These tax documents are usually to be provided immediately in the case of in-person requests and within 30 days in the case of written requests. The tax-exempt organization may charge a reasonable copying fee plus actual postage, if any. A tax-exempt organization does not have to comply with individual requests for copies if it makes the documents widely available as described in the regulations. In general, a tax exempt organization is not required to disclose to the public the names or addresses of contributors reported on its annual return. Unless your organization is a private foundation or a political organization, we recommend that on any copies provided to the public, posted to your website, or made available for public inspection you make the following changes:

- Remove the statement, if any, attached to Schedule A entitled Identification of Excess Contributions Included on Part IV-A, Line 2b, and
- Black out the names and addresses of contributors, if any, on Schedule B.
